

Call for Papers

2018 Arkansas Philological Association Meeting

October 19 and 20

University of Central Arkansas Campus

ORDER and DiSOrrDer

In Literature, Creative Writing, and Teaching

The Arkansas Philological Association invites papers for its forty-fifth annual conference: “Order and Disorder in Literature, Creative Writing, and Teaching.” Papers exploring the theme are particularly encouraged, though papers and creative works that take alternative approaches to language, literature, creative writing, pedagogy, and rhetorical analysis are also welcome. All papers and presentations should be no more than 15 minutes in length, and abstracts or author’s statements of no more than 100 words should be sent to Dr. Conrad Shumaker at shumaker@uca.edu with “APA 2018” in the subject line. Include your full name, rank, institutional affiliation, home or institutional address, and your preferred email. Travel, lodging, and conference details will be sent upon acceptance.
